Priorities:
- Maximize government transparency and accessibility to elected officials.
- Focus on improvement and sustainability of Monroe's infrastructure for a safe community.
- Continue fiduciary responsibility to the citizens of Monroe to ensure all tax dollars are maximized for the benefit of Monroe and our residents.
- Build and maintain strong partnerships with elected officials and community leaders.
- Provide a safe, fair, and equitable space for Monroe residents.
- Foster economic development by supporting our existing businesses and attracting new businesses.
- Plan for emergencies with prevention, mitigation, preparedness, response, recovery.
- Pursue opportunities for public input and engagement on City of Monroe decisions.
- Encourage our youth to be more involved in civic activities and community.
- Celebrate and promote Monroe as a rural, vibrant, and welcoming community.

Vision: I am running for re-election, as Mayor of Monroe, because as a community-minded citizen, I am committed to making a difference in the place I call home. I want Monroe to be a great place to raise a family, a relaxed place to walk with my kids, and have businesses where we can shop, visitors can enjoy, and together we support.
